Public Access- Immigration and Asylum Appeals

If you wish to challenge or appeal against a Home Office Visa or immigration decision, our barristers can advise and represent you. You can ask for help to submit an appeal form, or ask for representation and preparation for a hearing at the First-tier Tribunal (Immigration and Asylum Chamber) - our barristers can advise you about this. They can also advise you on the merits of applying for a judicial review of a decision.

Please note that barristers are not allowed to carry out legal aid work on a Public Access basis. You will need to make an informed decision about whether to apply for legal aid or to proceed with Public Access.

Timescales

Timescales for our services may vary depending on factors such as barristers' availability, the complexity of your case and the need for additional documents. As you must appeal a decision within 14 days (from within the UK) or 28 days (from outside the UK), please contact the clerks as soon as possible after you have received a Home Office decision. You may also need advice and/or representation at short notice. If so, please contact the clerks as soon as possible. Our barristers will aim to advise you and/or represent you at a hearing where possible.

Public Access - Inheritance Act Advices

The Inheritance Act 1975 protects spouses (including former spouses), cohabitants, children and other dependants when a person dies without leaving sufficient money for their continued wellbeing. Our barristers can provide you with written advice on whether you can make a claim under the Act. Our barristers can also provide you with written advice when a person dies and you are a beneficiary of the estate, but also someone else makes a claim under the Act.

Timescales

Timescales for your written advice may vary depending on factors such as barristers' availability, the value and complexity of the deceased person's estate, your financial needs and those of any beneficiary of the estate. However, claims under the Act must be made within six months of the grant of probate, so as a guide our written advice will be available within two to four weeks where possible.

Fees

We charge fixed fees, which means you will be charged a certain fixed amount of money for the work that we provide. For some cases a conference may be necessary. Stated below are estimates only based on the ranges of fixed fees for barristers at Broadway House Chambers. All fees stated are plus VAT (where applicable).
